

What to Bring:

IMPORTANT: The brushes and paints listed below are ONLY A SUGGESTION; if you feel more comfortable with your particular choices of brushes and paints (or media other than oil or acrylic paints), then by all means, please use them.

- Easel: Any light-weight portable easel will do.
- Brushes: I like flats - sizes no. 2, 6 and 10.
- Paints: Titanium White, Ultramarine Blue, Alizarin Crimson, Cadmium Yellow (Daler Rowney Georgian Brand) and Transparent Red Oxide. These are the colors I currently use on my limited palette.
- Palette: Wood, glass or plastic are fine but please: no paper palettes (these will blow around).
- Painting panels: Any type will do - bring at least 6 panels. I STRONGLY SUGGEST nothing larger than 6x8s or 8x10s for the first day. The second day for your masterpiece, you can bring whatever size you desire.
- Other: Small sketch pad and pencil (important); odorless thinner, paper towels, metal palette knife, and trash bags (plastic grocery bags).
